Physical Education – Sports Studies

Cambridge National in Sport Studies comprises four units (equivalent to one GCSE):

What is the Cambridge National in Sport Studies?

The Cambridge National in Sport Studies takes a more sector-based focus, whilst also encompassing some core sport/Physical Education themes. Students have the opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge about different types of sport and physical activity, skills development and sports leadership to their own practical performance. They will learn about contemporary issues in sport such as funding, participation, ethics and role models, and sport and the media. Students will develop an appreciation of the importance of sport locally and nationally, different ways of being involved in sport and how this shapes the sports industry.

Over the duration of the two year course, you will study a variety of sport topics
